Reception on His Return.

The brokers on the Stock Exchange Knoblauch appeared upon the floor. Knoblauch left a profitable business to enlist in the Rough Riders, and was unde a corporal for bravery at Santiago.

He was not recognized when he reached the St. Paul crowd, in which he was formerly a specialist. Suddenly up went the shout, "Nere's Knoblauch!" A mighty cheer broke forth. He was carried to the rostrum, where he held a reception, every broker on the floor wanting to shake hands with him. He has a furfough, which expires to-day, when he returns to Camp Wikoff.

The juy at seeing Knoblauch was dampened by the news that J. Lorinier Worden, another Wall Sirect member of the Rough Riders, was ill at the Presbyterian Hospital with typhold fever.

Soldiers on a Monthly Englement Knoblauch appeared upon the floor. Knob-

In this hospital alone there were seventeen men ill of fever, measies and other discases, who were compelled to spend the day on the bere ground. There was nothing under them but dirty blankets. No cots were to be had.

The Twelfth New York Regiment is located in the Third Division, First Corps, and the reports showed seventy-six mention the Empire State in the hospital. This hospital was established for the accommodation of 200 patients, and the reports show that the hospital has just 336 limates.

All patients, when they reach a critical stage, are transferred to a ward off from the romainder of the hospital. Every man in the hospital is aware of the existence of this ward, and when sent there they feel that they are doomed. Surgeon Steward sold to-day that when a man is sent there he hardly ever leaves it alive. The patients cry and beg the surgeons not to send them to the doomed house, as they call the place. A few feet away is the "dead house."

Washington, Aug. 22.-It was stated in an authoritative quarter to-day that Mr. Hay's choice was due solely to his general Hay's choice was due solely to his general fitness for the position, and was without reference to or consideration of, the Chiuese question. Beyond this, no official statement is made as to the policy of the United Sintes in the far East, but nil the indications point to a continuance of the past policy of protecting and fostering our commercial interests, without entering intralitines or joint undertakings which entail semi-political considerations.

It is fully recognized by the authorities here that the commercial interests of Great Britain and the United States are on some what similar lines in the Far East, and to that extent there doubtless will be a murality of settin, but it cannot be said that
